

27 Octobre 2023

A António Guterres, Secrétaire Général des Nations Unies,Appel urgent pour la libération immédiate des nourrissons et des enfants israéliens enlevés

Nous, soussignés, défenseurs des enfants, experts en protection de l'enfance, en droits, en traumatismes et en psychologie, ainsi que le Hostages and Missing Families Forum, demandons à l'ONU, aux dirigeants mondiaux et à la communauté internationale d'exiger la libération immédiate des enfants israéliens enlevés lors de l'attaque du Hamas contre les communautés israéliennes le 7 octobre 2023.

Lors de cette attaque, un nombre confirmé de 229 personnes ont été enlevées, dont une trentaine d'enfants. Six de ces enfants sont des bébés, dont certains sont encore allaités. Certaines des personnes enlevées ont besoin de médicaments, d'une alimentation spéciale ou d'un traitement.

Ces enlèvements s'inscrivaient dans le cadre d'une agression plus vaste, généralisée et cruelle, qui a entraîné la perte tragique d'au moins 1 300 vies et laissé des milliers d'autres personnes avec des blessures physiques et émotionnelles persistantes. Des enfants et des nourrissons ont été soumis à une brutalité indescriptible et forcés d'assister aux sévices et aux meurtres de leurs parents, de leurs grands-parents et de leurs frères et sœurs. Ces jeunes âmes ont enduré des heures prolongées de terreur, souvent confinées dans les maisons qui avaient été leurs sanctuaires. Ces expériences angoissantes ont laissé des cicatrices indélébiles dans leur cœur et leur esprit, façonnant leur vie d'une manière que nous pouvons à peine imaginer. Les nourrissons et les enfants qui ont été brutalement enlevés à leur famille, privés de la présence réconfortante d'un compagnon, ont été projetés dans un monde déjà marqué par le profond chagrin et le traumatisme résultant des événements dont ils ont été témoins. Leur douleur persistera et ils porteront cette épreuve avec eux tout au long de leur vie.

Le temps s'écoule rapidement, chaque jour qui passe constituant un péril existentiel imminent pour la vie et le bien-être de ces nourrissons et enfants vulnérables. Les résultats des recherches cliniques du monde entier soulignent les effets dévastateurs de l'enlèvement et de la captivité sur les enfants. Les fondements mêmes de la sécurité et de la protection ont été sauvagement arrachés à ces nourrissons et à ces enfants. Ces enfants sont maintenant exposés à des troubles post-traumatiques (anxiété, pensées intrusives, cauchemars), à des problèmes émotionnels (peurs, difficultés de confiance et d'attachement, altération du développement émotionnel), à des problèmes comportementaux graves (aversion sociale, retard de développement) et à des dommages cognitifs (perte de mémoire, difficultés d'apprentissage). Ces conséquences non réversibles affecteront leur vie entière. Chaque jour, chaque heure, chaque minute passée en captivité marque à vie l'âme et le corps des enfants et aggrave leurs blessures en les rendant irréparables. Plus ces enfants sont emprisonnés longtemps, plus les conséquences sur leur vie sont graves.

Toute blessure infligée à un enfant lors d'une guerre est terrible et intolérable. Les enfants doivent être protégés des luttes violentes impliquant des États, des groupes et des nations. Cela s'applique aux enfants d'Israël et de Gaza, qui souffrent tous du conflit depuis des années. Mais cette attaque brutale et odieuse visant des enfants, y compris leur torture et leur enlèvement, marque un niveau de violence entièrement nouveau, car les enfants étaient la cible visée par l'attaque. Il s'agit du pire crime contre l'humanité que l'on puisse imaginer et de la violation la plus odieuse des principes moraux fondamentaux.

Le droit international impose également aux nations et aux organisations une obligation particulière d'agir immédiatement. La prise en otage de civils est une violation flagrante du droit des conflits armés [article 3 commun] et constitue un crime de guerre. L'attaque généralisée, intentionnelle et systématique contre des civils constitue un crime contre l'humanité.

L'enlèvement et la détention arbitraire au secret constituent une violation de toutes les normes internationales pertinentes énoncées dans la Déclaration universelle des droits de l'homme, dont l'essentiel s'applique également aux acteurs non étatiques comme le Hamas, ainsi que dans d'autres instruments internationaux pertinents acceptés par la Palestine. Ces derniers comprennent, sans s'y limiter, les articles 6 (droit à la vie et au développement), 9 (non-séparation d'avec les parents) et 19 (protection contre la violence sous toutes ses formes) de la Convention relative aux droits de l'enfant, ainsi que les dispositions pertinentes du Pacte international relatif aux droits civils et politiques, de la Convention contre la torture et de la Convention relative aux droits des personnes handicapées.

Nous vous demandons de prendre dès maintenant des mesures et d'utiliser tous les leviers possibles pour obtenir la libération des nourrissons et des enfants kidnappés. Parmi eux, Kfir, un bébé de 9 mois encore allaité, et Avigail, un enfant de 3 ans qui a assisté au meurtre sauvage de ses parents.

Chaque minute qui s'écoule pendant laquelle un enfant reste en captivité est un moment où notre humanité collective est en jeu. Nous demandons aux dirigeants du monde entier de s'unir pour la cause commune de la libération de ces enfants kidnappés, comme un premier petit pas vers la restauration de notre humanité commune. Les vies fragiles et vulnérables de ces nourrissons et de ces enfants sont inextricablement liées à nos actions et aux vôtres. Les abandonnerons-nous pour leur faire endurer des tourments, de la peur et des dommages irréparables ou nous montrerons-nous à la hauteur et les sauverons-nous de cette situation désespérée ?
